If you have a spare $1,499,999 lying around, you might be able to buy Mike Tyson's five-bedroom home in Henderson, Nevada, just a few minutes away from Las Vegas. Tyson bought the home in 2007 from former NBA player and current analyst Jalen Rose, according to AZ Central, and recently purchased a new $2.5 million home in the same neighborhood.

Tyson's old house has six bathrooms, three fireplaces, a pool, and an "LED rain shower." That's a strong bathroom-to-fireplace ratio.

You can see the listing at Luxury Homes of Las Vegas.
